D. L. Guilfoyle, manager of the campaign in St. Joseph county, presided and speeches were made by the pastors of the various churches, each one expressing confidence in their parishioners to do more than their amount in this campaign. Rev. P. J. Carroll, paster of St. Joseph's church, stated that "this is the first time in the history of this country that the Catholic people have had an opportunity to show their caliber to ANTONIO SALA TO BE the world. They have already demonstrated their patriotism, as onethird of the mer enlisted in the United States army to date are Catholics." During the speaches of the evening stress was laid upon the fact that this campaign is for the spiritnal welfare of the Catholic men enlisted and also for the recreation and amusement of numerous non-Catholics. A telegram received from H.

Wayne diocese, was read, and Bishop Alerding indorsed the plans of the campaign and przed every Catholic in this district to respond to this great cause.
